

STUDENT SUPPORT

Graduate assistantships are available. Each Master's student in music theory gains at least one year of classroom teaching experience within the undergraduate core curriculum in theory and aural skills. Other teaching opportunities include one-on-one tutoring in our Music Theory Learning Center.

TO APPLY, VISIT
music.msu.edu/admissions

CONTACT US

Music Theory Area Chairperson:
Michael Callahan: mrc@msu.edu, (517) 353-6607

Admissions:

Ben Ebener: admissions@music.msu.edu, (517) 355-2140

CONNECT WITH US

facebook.com/musicmsu
twitter.com/musicmsu
youtube.com/musicmsu
new.livestream.com/musicmsu

College of Music
MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY

College of Music Admissions Office
Michigan State University
333 W. Circle Dr. Room 253
East Lansing, MI 48824

music.msu.edu

THE MASTER OF MUSIC IN MUSIC THEORY AT MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY

MUSIC THEORY

Integrated excellence in research and pedagogy is at the core of the music theory area. Graduates of our program excel at both. Learn more at theory.music.msu.edu.

The Master's degree in Music Theory offers outstanding scholarly training in the analytical approaches, skills, and research methods of music theory. Through theory pedagogy seminars, actual classroom experience, and mentoring, students also become highly skilled teachers.

